Bain & Company's 2012 Diversity Pre-MBA Program

What do consultants do? What will I learn?
How will I be supported? How can Bain help shape my career?

OVERVIEW

Through our annual Diversity Pre-MBA Program, we aim to attract the most qualified Black/African American, Latino/Hispanic, and Native American MBA students, and introduce them to our firm and the management consulting industry. This year, the program will be held on June 28th-29th in our New York office.

PROGRAM AGENDA

- Formal and informal opportunities to build relationships with Bainies across all levels of the firm, and with other program participants
- Presentations on our firm, our industry, and the work consultants do
- Insights on how to succeed in a professional services firm
- Case interview preparation sessions
- Tips on how to navigate business school and your job search

ELIGIBILITY

- An incoming, first-year MBA student at Booth, Columbia, HBS, Kellogg, Sloan, Stanford, Tuck, or Wharton
- Of Black/African American, Latino/Hispanic, or Native American descent
