

Military MBA Workshop

July 19th 2014 1000-1400
Pacific Views Event Center, Camp Pendleton

The workshop will cover:

The Advantages of Getting an MBA
Application Process: Resumes, Essays, Recommendations

Presenters:

We will have three MBA Experts (from Harvard, Wharton and Chicago Booth) who have 20 years of experience advising Military MBA Applicants. Topics discussed will be the application process, school differences and planning your transition from the military to business school. After the workshop we will have a networking and questions session.

Who:

All who are considering an MBA program, whether you are applying this year, or in five years (ideal), this workshop is for you!

Cost:

Free! Also, lunch will be provided for free. This workshop works on “pay it forward.” All we ask is that once our workshop attendees master the process, they do their best to steward future Military MBAs as well!

Sign Up / Questions:

Email your name, rank, command to Capt Christopher Munguia
christopher.munguia@usmc.mil

