

The Kellogg MBA Program

Student Ambassador Event

What type of student experience can you expect at a place that's passionate about collaboration? What leadership opportunities await? What career options are available with a Kellogg MBA?

Join us for a special Kellogg School Ambassador Event in Melbourne hosted by current students and alumni to get the answers to these questions and many more. This forum will address academics, life on campus, the strength of our alumni network and other topics touching on student life.

2nd September, 2014
