II. How to Apply for Scholarships

Category A and B:

If you want to apply for a scholarship category “A” or “B”, please complete the IUJ Online Application (<http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/online/>). Please respond to all questions inputting your answers directly into the online forms. Be sure to complete each section. If it is not possible to apply online in your location, contact the admission staff at admgsir@iuj.ac.jp for GSIR or admgsim@iuj.ac.jp for GSIM for alternative options.

IUJ will award or make nominations for awards (when possible) to the appropriate scholarships to applicants who submit all completed application documents for admissions, including the scholarship application form by the admissions deadlines, and who pass the admissions screening and are accepted into IUJ. Applying in the early intakes for these scholarships is highly recommended. Scholarships are competitive.

Category C:

For category “C” scholarships, contact the institutes or offices concerned to begin the application process, indicating your interest in attending IUJ.

III. Guidelines for Scholarships

Category A: IUJ Direct Award Scholarships along with IUJ Admissions Decisions

Category A-1: S. Nakayama Memorial Scholarship

IUJ provides a limited number of scholarships for newly enrolling international students to support their IUJ studies with the expectation that they will also be active participants in support of the local community and gain a good understanding of the Japanese society. These scholars are expected to develop leadership skills and then contribute to the international society in a leadership role upon graduation. Priority for this scholarship is given to those with excellent academic performances and in financial need.

Conditions for two-year programs (IRP, IDP, PMPP and MBA)

- IUJ-A: Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admission fee of 300,000yen)
Full Exemption of Tuition: 1,900,000 yen
Stipend: 100,000 yen per month, including an allowance for the dormitory fee
- IUJ-B: Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admission fee of 300,000yen)

Category C: Direct Scholarship Application to Other Institution

Category C-1: Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia (JISPA)

- IMF has designated four Japanese universities to participate in partnership with JISPA. IUJ, with its Master of Arts in Economics, is one of these.
- The JISPA targets highly motivated government officials who may serve as future macroeconomic policy makers with the capacity and vision to contribute effectively to the economic development of their countries. Scholarship awards are made on the basis of the candidate's academic record and work background, mathematical and statistics skills, English language proficiency, and potential for contributing to the macroeconomic and financial management and economic development of their country. The assessment also includes qualities such as the candidate's commitment to public service, willingness to learn, and openness to new ideas. Currently, the JISPA is open to qualified candidates from the following countries:

Bangladesh	Bhutan	Cambodia	China	India
Indonesia	Kazakhstan	Kyrgyz Republic	Lao P.D.R.	Malaysia
Maldives	Mongolia	Myanmar	Nepal	Pacific Island Countries
Papua New Guinea	Philippines	Sri Lanka	Tajikistan	Thailand
Timor-Leste	Turkmenistan	Uzbekistan	Vietnam

- The deadline for Partnership Track applications is the beginning of December of each year.
- For further information on the JISPA and to obtain an application, see the IMF website at <http://www.imf.org/external/oap/partguide.htm> or contact the IMF resident representative offices in the relevant countries, or contact:

Category C-2: Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship (JDS) Program

- The JDS Program is to provide nationals of* Bangladesh, Cambodia, Kyrgyz, Laos, Mongolia, Myanmar, Vietnam, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Ghana with opportunities for academic research at Japanese higher educational institutions under the Grant Aid assistance by Government of Japan.
- The main objective of the JDS Program is to support human resource development in each participating country by fostering young government officials who are expected to facilitate the social and economic development of their countries in the 21st century. Another aim is for JDS Fellows, because of their experience in Japan, to contribute to broaden and enhance the foundation for bilateral relations between their countries and Japan.
- JDS Fellows are expected to acquire specialist knowledge not only for individual capacity building but also for social capacity building and to engage actively and practically in addressing the social and economic development issues in their countries.
- The JDS fellows have been sent to the IRP, IDP, PMPP and MBA Programs at IUJ. For further information on the JDS scholarships, including eligibility and conditions, and to obtain an application, contact the JICA/JICE regional offices or your government in the relevant countries.

Subject to change*

Category C-3: Project for the Promotion and Enhancement of the Afghan Capacity for Effective Development (PEACE)

The JDS Program provides support to nationals of Afghanistan, who work within the governmental ministries. They focus their academics on infrastructural development and agriculture and rural development issues for future application in Afghanistan. For further information and application procedures contact the JICA office in Afghanistan.

Category C-4: World Bank SPIRIT Project “Scholarship Program for Strengthening Reforming Institutions”

The scholarship aims at development technical and managerial skills in Indonesia's civil servants to enhance the capacity of organizational and to improve the internal operating environment. Screening and selection processes are handled between the Indonesian government, World Bank and IUJ.

Category C-5: Japanese Government (MEXT) with Embassy Recommendation

Note: Requires over 1 year advance application before starting at IUJ

2015 MEXT scholarship applications and awards have already been completed.

For 2016 consideration, contact the Japanese embassy or consulate nearest you for the application form and their schedule. After you pass the preliminary screening conducted by the Embassy or Consulate, then contact IUJ (we are not allowed to help you before passing that first). Please contact IUJ as soon as possible after passing the screening in order to allow enough time to complete the process considering summer holidays. IUJ will ask for TOEFL/IELTS scores and for the MBA candidates the GMAT score, and other supportive documents. More information is at <http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/scholarship/MEXTdetails.htm>

Note: IUJ will accept MEXT scholars only for the period needed to complete the degree for which the scholar plans to enroll. An additional 6 months of Japanese language training is not necessary for MEXT scholars who enroll at IUJ.

Scholarships Possible After Starting Classes at IUJ

Students may have the opportunity to apply for scholarships provided by the following foundations (examples) after enrolling in IUJ. Most require some Japanese language proficiency, so those in need of financial support are highly encouraged to study Japanese before coming to IUJ, and prepare to fill out scholarship applications in Japanese.

Scholarship Information will be posted on the IUJ bulletin board after your arrival to campus. For updates on these and possibly other applications, see <http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/scholarship/AfterArrival.cfm>

- JASSO Honors Scholarship (Monthly Stipend: 65,000 yen): Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) provides a limited number of scholarships for international students who are fully or partially financed privately. Applications are accepted through IUJ with an IUJ recommendation after being enrolled at IUJ. The initial award is through March of your first year at IUJ. A second application process, usually with fewer scholarships available, is required for April to March scholarship renewal. The process is competitive, and largely GPA based.
- IUJ Alumni Sohei Nakayama Memorial Scholarship Type-D (Monthly Stipend: 100,000 yen depending on the year): With fund raising efforts by IUJ Alumni Association, IUJ is able to provide a scholarship to support two awardees in their second year of study (September through June). This scholarship gives priority to those contributing to campus life through their leadership, and those contributing to IUJ-community relations. The scholarship is suspended if the awardee is on academic exchange and not at IUJ.

Eligibility

1. Any nationality and age may apply. Applicants may not be receiving any other stipend (except JASSO) at the time of applying, and may receive only one stipend at a time, in principle.
2. Successful candidates are expected to continue their leadership on campus during their 2nd year, and as alumni to help build a strong IUJ network and global community.

- Other Scholarships expected to be facilitated through IUJ (examples)
