Analytical Writing Assessment

This report is created before your Analytical Writing Essay is scored. Please refer to your Official GMAT Score Report to find your AWA score.

The following information will help you interpret your AWA score:

6

An AWA score of 6 reflects an outstanding essay. A cogent, well-articulated critique of the argument, demonstrating mastery of the elements of effective writing, and displaying the following characteristics: - Clearly identifies and insightfully analyzes important features of the argument - Develops ideas cogently, organizes them logically, and connects them smoothly with clear transitions - Effectively supports the main points of the critique - Demonstrates superior control of language, including diction and syntactic variety and the conventions of standard written English

5

An AWA score of 5 reflects a strong essay. A well-developed critique of the argument, demonstrating good control of the elements of effective writing, and displaying the following characteristics: - Clearly identifies important features of the argument and analyzes them in a generally thoughtful way - Develops ideas clearly, organizes them logically, and connects them with appropriate transitions - Sensibly supports the main points of the critique - Demonstrates clear control of language, including diction and syntactic variety - Demonstrates facility with the conventions of standard written English, but may have minor flaws

4

An AWA score of 4 reflects an adequate essay. A competent critique of the argument, demonstrating adequate control of the elements of effective writing, and displaying the following characteristics: - Identifies and capably analyzes important features of the argument - Develops and organizes ideas satisfactorily, but may not always connect them with transitions - Supports the main points of the critique - Demonstrates adequate control of language, including diction and syntactic variety, but may lack syntactic variety - Displays control of the conventions of standard written English, but may have some flaws

3

An AWA score of 3 reflects a competent but clearly flawed critique of the argument, demonstrating some control of the elements of effective writing, and displaying the following characteristics: - Does not identify or analyze most of the important features of the argument, although some analysis is present - Is limited in the logical development and organization of ideas - Offers support of little relevance and value for points of the critique - Uses language imprecisely and/or lacks sentence variety - Contains occasional major errors or frequent minor errors in grammar, usage, and mechanics

2

An AWA score of 2 reflects a seriously flawed essay, demonstrating significant weakness in analytical writing skills, and displaying the following characteristics: - Fails to show an understanding of and does not identify or analyze the main features of the argument - Does not develop ideas or is disorganized - Provides few, if any, relevant or reasonable supports - Has serious, frequent problems in the use of language and sentence structure - Contains numerous errors in grammar, usage, or mechanics that interfere with meaning

1

An AWA score of 1 reflects a fundamentally deficient essay, demonstrating fundamental deficiencies in analytical writing skills, and displaying the following characteristics: - Provides little evidence of the ability to understand and analyze the argument or to develop an organized response to it - Has severe and persistent errors in language and sentence structure - Contains a pervasive pattern of errors in grammar, usage, and mechanics thus resulting in incoherence

0

An AWA score of 0 reflects an essay that was not scored. The essay is either totally illegible or obviously not written on the assigned topic.
