

GET A HEAD-START ON YOUR MBA CAREER OPPORTUNITIES.

Heading to business school this fall and already starting to think about what you'd like to do with your shiny new degree? Once you step on campus, time for job-hunting will be precious, which is why we encourage you to connect with us this summer at the 2016 Diversity Pre-MBA Program. Now is the perfect time to fall in love with Bain & Company.

Our Diversity Pre-MBA program aims to attract Black/African American, Latino/Hispanic, and Native American MBA students interested in learning more about strategy consulting as a career path. The action-packed two-day event will be held on June 23-24, 2016 in Bain's New York office with some highlights that include...

- Attending seminars about what a career as a Bain Consultant entails and how impactful the work at Bain is
- Networking with senior Consultants and Partners from around the Bain system – important contacts in your future career search!
- Hearing from Bain alumni on how Bain prepared them for success in their careers
- Receiving tips and real-life examples on how to navigate business school and job searches
- Getting to know your future MBA peers from other top schools
