

Emerging Scholars

Congratulations! Your decision to pursue an MBA degree is a significant and exciting step in your career and symbolizes your achievements and your commitment to do even more.

At McKinsey, we are looking to get to know people just like you.

- People who actively seek ways to maximize their own potential
- Individuals who go after and enjoy tackling challenges
- People who thrive when working with other people

Ultimately, we are looking for people who yearn to use their talents to make positive change in their lives and the world we share.

If you are thinking, “wow, this sounds like me!” we would like to offer you an opportunity to celebrate your success. This summer, McKinsey will be gathering a select group of pre-MBA students and award them with scholarships, as well as the chance to start building a remarkable network. This is an opportunity to learn more about McKinsey and our people and join an exceptional group of your peers.

We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity and allow us get to know you better and celebrate your success – before the rush of classes begins.

Scholarship Package

- 2 Individual mentorship with McKinsey consultants
- 3 Celebration event for the Emerging Scholars

How To Apply

Candidates need to be admitted to a full-time MBA program beginning in the fall of 2016 at one of the eligible schools listed on our website. Please visit www.mckinsey.com/emergingscholars for more details.

If you are interested, please submit an application by May 19, 2016.

All applications will be reviewed and candidates will be notified of next steps by early June.

We will announce the Emerging Scholars by early July and host the celebration event shortly thereafter.

“McKinsey’s Emerging Scholars program was an invaluable experience. We didn’t just hear about their culture, we experienced it over drinks and dinner. They didn’t show slides touting their high-impact work and renowned problem-solving approach, they let us actually tackle a prior project with McKinsey facilitators.

In the end, you understand why CEOs and prime ministers call McKinsey first, why the best and brightest work there and, most importantly, whether or not the firm (and consulting) is right for you – all before you step foot on campus.
