

School	Official GMAT/GRE with Application(yes/no)	Requirement of Official GMAT/GRE	Link
Tuck	NO	This step is required only for admitted students, who have 30 days from the date of enrollment to submit their official score reports.	https://www.tuck.dartmouth.edu/admissions/admissions-faq
Ross	No	If accepted, official reports will be required.	https://michiganross.umich.edu/graduate/full-time-mba/admissions/application-requirements
Harvard	Probably No(not very clear from the information given)	When submitting your application, you may report the unofficial GMAT or GRE score given on the day of the test, or your official score if you have received it. Every applicant must request that Pearson (for the GMAT) or ETS (for the GRE) send an official score report directly to HBS.	https://www.hbs.edu/mba/admissions/application-process/Pages/default.aspx
Darden	No	If offered admission, you will need to send official documents.	https://www.darden.virginia.edu/mba/admissions/requirements/
Johnson	No	All applicants must provide GMAT or GRE scores, and upload an official score report within your application. You may submit an unofficial score report for review, however, before matriculating at Johnson we must have an official score report.	https://www.johnson.cornell.edu/Programs/Full-Time-MBA/Admissions/Application-Guide/Application-Requirements
Haas	Yes		https://mba.haas.berkeley.edu/admissions/gmat-and-gre
ISB	Yes		http://blogs.isb.edu/admissionsdirector/2013/07/31/applying-to-isb-pgp-2014-15/
Stanford	Not clear from the language	If you do not take the test prior to submission, your application will be reviewed without your scores. Scores received after	https://www.gsb.stanford.edu/programs/mba/admission/application-process/gmat-gre

School	Official GMAT/GRE with Application(yes/no)	Requirement of Official GMAT/GRE	Link
		the deadline will not be reviewed. Self-report your scores on the application form. These are the scores we will consider in our initial evaluation of your application. If you do not have your official scores, list the unofficial scores.
Wharton	NO	You may self-report your GMAT score; if admitted, you will need to submit an official GMAT score report to our office before you can matriculate.	https://mba.wharton.upenn.edu/admissions-faqs/
MIT Sloan	YES	We require that the official GMAT/GRE test scores are sent to us by the application deadline. We understand that sometimes it takes 1-2 weeks for the test centers to release the scores. Therefore, it is acceptable if we receive the scores shortly after the application deadline.	https://mitsloan.mit.edu/mba/admissions/common-questions
Columbia GSB	No	- All applicants must submit a self-reported GMAT or GRE score. Your scores must be valid when you submit your application. - If admitted, you must submit an official GMAT or GRE score.	https://www8.gsb.columbia.edu/programs/mba/admissions/application-requirements#3
Booth	No	Official scores will only be requested if and when you are offered admission.	https://www.chicagobooth.edu/programs/full-time/faq#technical-issues

School	Official GMAT/GRE with Application(yes/no)	Requirment of Official GMAT/GRE	Link
Kellogg	Yes	You must report your scores by the application deadline.	https://www.kellogg.northwestern.edu/programs/full-time-mba/admissions/application-process.aspx
Yale Som	Couldn't find		https://som.yale.edu/programs/mba/admissions/application-information/faq
Stern	Yes	While an official test score is required for a final decision, the Admissions Committee can begin the review of your application with an unofficial test score.	http://www.stern.nyu.edu/programs-admissions/mba-programs/admissions/standardized-tests
Fuqua	No	Self-reported scores are accepted with the application, and official score reports sent directly from the testing agency will be required after admission and before the program begins.	https://www.fuqua.duke.edu/programs/daytime-mba/application-instructions
Anderson	No	Official scores are required for admission but not for applying.	http://www.anderson.ucla.edu/degrees/full-time-mba/admissions/requirements#gmat
Mcombs	Yes	You must self-report your test scores in your application as well as have official score reports sent directly to UT Austin by the testing agency. GMAT and GRE test scores expire five years after the test date. The date that your official scores are sent to UT Austin by the testing agency should be no later than the application round deadline, as it can	https://www.mcombs.utexas.edu/MBA/Full-Time/Application-Process

School	Official GMAT/GRE with Application(yes/no)	Requirement of Official GMAT/GRE	Link
		take up to 3-4 weeks for scores to be processed. After application submission, you will be able to monitor the status of your test scores.
Kenan-flagler	No	Applicants should self-report test scores on their application. Official scores are not required until after admission to the full-time MBA program.	https://www.kenan-flagler.unc.edu/admissions/mba/requirements
USC Marshall	No	You must either upload your score report into the application or provide the intended future test date in the appropriate field in the application. Failure to do this may result in a deny decision. Submitting Official Test Scores (required for all enrolling students)	https://www.marshall.usc.edu/programs/mba-programs/full-time-mba/admissions/requirements